

ANZSIL International Peace and Security Interest Group 2015 Workshop Programme

Friday, 20 March 2015

Boardroom, Level 10 (access via stairs on Level 9)

Melbourne Law School, 185 Pelham St, Carlton, Victoria

8.30 – 9.00am	Registration
9.00 – 9.10am	Welcome Dr Rain Liivoja (Melbourne Law School / ANZSIL IPSIG Chair) Prof Anne Orford (Melbourne Law School / ANZSIL President)
9.10 – 10.30am	Session 1: Critical Perspectives to International Peace and Security Law Rethinking 'Peace' in International Law Prof Di Otto (Melbourne Law School) Negotiating Peace and Law: Armed Groups as Lawmakers Asst Prof Philipp Kastner (University of Western Australia, Faculty of Law) Israeli Settlements in the West Bank and the Prohibition against the Transfer of Population into Occupied Territories in the Rome Statute Simon McKenzie (Melbourne Law School) Discussion and questions Session Chair: Assoc Prof Treasa Dunworth (University of Auckland, Faculty of Law)
10.30 – 11.00am	Morning Tea
11.00 – 12.30	Session 2: Law of Armed Conflict and Disarmament Law Towards International Peace and Security through respect for International Humanitarian Law : A Weapons Law Perspective Eve Massingham (Australian Red Cross) Autonomous Attacks and the Law of Armed Conflict Tim McFarland (Melbourne Law School) Thirty Years in Fifteen Minutes: Reflections on Semantics and Substance in Disarmament Diplomacy A/Prof Bob Mathews (Australian Defence Science and Technology Organisation) Discussion and questions Session Chair: Asst Prof Chris Jenks (SMU Dedman School of Law)
12.30 – 2.00pm	Lunch

2.00 – 3.30pm	Session 3: Security and Accountability
	Judicial Scrutiny of the United Kingdom’s Detention Policies in Iraq and Afghanistan: Mohammed v Ministry of Defence, Iraqi Civilians v Ministry of Defence and Hussein v Secretary of State for Defence FLTLT Joshua Kelly (Royal Australian Air Force) The Proliferation of Private Military Companies: The Hunt for Accountability Christopher R Macera (Supreme Court of Victoria) International Human Rights Law and Humanitarian Law: The Demands on the Military and the Interrelation of Military Discipline and Civilian Justice Pauline Collins (University of Southern Queensland, School of Law and Justice) Discussion and questions Session Chair: Prof John Tobin (Melbourne Law School)
3.30 – 4.00pm	Afternoon Tea
4.00 – 5.30pm	Session 4: Future Directions
	Sue Robertson (Attorney-General’s Department) Dr Carrie McDougall (Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade) Netta Goussac (ICRC) COL Justin Emerson (New Zealand Defence Force) Discussion and questions Session Chair: Dr Hitoshi Nasu (ANU College of Law)
Evening	Dinner (at own expense)