

Australian and New Zealand
Society of International Law

Provisional Timetable
ANZSIL Conference
International Law: From the Local to the Global
Wellington, New Zealand
5-7 July 2018

Venue is the Law Faculty, Victoria University of Wellington, 55 Lambton Quay, Wellington, unless otherwise stated
Please note that this timetable is provisional only and is subject to change

Wednesday, 4 July 2018

9.00-17.30 Postgraduate Workshop

Thursday, 5 July 2018

8.15-9.00 Registration and Tea/Coffee

9.00-9.30 Opening remarks by Hon David Parker, Attorney-General of New Zealand

9.30-10.45 Plenary Address

- Zhao Yun, Professor and Head of Department of Law, University of Hong Kong
- Anne Orford, Redmond Barry Distinguished Professor, Michael D Kirby Chair of International Law and Australia Laureate Fellow, University of Melbourne

10.45-11.15 Morning tea

11.15-12.45 Parallel Sessions

1 Children and International Law

- Jonathan Kolieb, Protecting War's Most Vulnerable Victims: Is the international legal framework for the protection of children in armed conflict fit for purpose?
- Shireen Daft, Preserving the Future of Peace: The Inclusion of Children in Peace Agreements and the Role of International Legal Standards
- Holly Doel-Mackaway, 'Ask Us ... This Is Our Country'—Indigenous Children and Young People, International Law and Participation

2 Public International Law

- Madelaine Chiam, The First Australian and New Zealand Society of International Law, 1933-38
- Guy Fiti Sinclair, A Common Law for All Mankind? Revisiting a Constitutional Vision of International Law
- Andrea Carcano, Closing the Gap between the Global and the National? Thoughts on a Recent Plea for a Comparative International Law Approach

3 Trade and International Economic Law

- Jemma Lala, A New Progressive and Inclusive Trade Agenda – where will it take us?
- Fernando Dias Simões, International Economic Law in the ‘Post-Truth’ Era
- Dilan Thampapillai, Food security versus food sovereignty

12.45-14.00 Lunch

14.00-15.30 Parallel sessions

4 Security and the United Nations

- Elizabeth Thomas, Implementing UNSC sanctions: Challenges and complexities
- Ashley Murphy, ‘Navigating the Political Character of the United Nations Security Council: Responsibility and Risk as Rationales for a Climate Change Threat to Peace?’
- Tamsin Paige, Petulant and Contrary: The P5 and Threat to the Peace
- Roisin Burke, African Union Peacekeepers, Crimes, Regulation, and the UN’s Due Diligence Policy on United Nations Support to Non-United Nations Security Forces

5 The Intersection of Globalism and Regionalism in the Antarctic

- Karen Scott, Biodiversity Beyond National Jurisdiction in Antarctica: Does Globalism and Regionalism Co-exist or Collide?
- Alan Hemmings, On the Failure to Deliver Liability for Environmental Damage under the Madrid Protocol
- Megan Addis, Protocol on the Environmental Protection to the Antarctic Treaty

6. Trade and International Economic law

- Michelle Q Zang, When the Multilateral Meets the Regionals
- Genevieve Wilkinson, The Human Rights-Based Bridge between Local and Global in International IP Law
- S M Atia Naznin, Socio-economic Rights and Transnational Corporations in Developing Countries: Examining the Adequacy of International Legal Framework

Australian and New Zealand Society of International Law

15.30-16.00 Afternoon tea
16.00-17.30 Parallel sessions

7 Disarmament/Use of force

- Anna Hood, The Underexplored and Changing Landscape of Coercive Disarmament
- Stacey Henderson, Permission to Intercede or Sovereignty Supreme?
- Timothea Horn, Middle powers and treaty-making: lessons learnt, future pathways

8 Law of the Sea

- Grant Kynaston, Implementing the Law of the Sea: the case of Russia in arbitrations under UNCLOS
- Amelia Telec, Conciliation under the UN Convention on the Law of the Sea: Reflections on the Australian experience
- Donald Rothwell, Islands, Statehood, Entitlements and International Law

9 Trade and International Economic Law

- Monique Egli Costi, From the Local to the Global: Challenges and Opportunities in Developing the International Securities Regulatory Regime
- Mostafa Haider, Networked Rules, Transnational Corporations and Legal Responsibility in Global Value Chain
- Courtney Edwards and Milena Arsic, Transitioning to a market-based telecommunications sector – Opportunities for modernisation of telecommunications trade rules

17.45-18.15 Reception
18.15-19.30 International Humanitarian Law Lecture delivered by Vincent Bernard, ICRC

Friday 6 July

- 9.00-10.30 Plenary Address
- Campbell McLachlan QC, Professor of Law, Victoria University of Wellington
  - Dr Kimberley Trapp, Senior Lecturer, University College London
- 10.30-11.00 Morning tea
- 11.00-12.30 Parallel Sessions

10 Antipodean Contributions to UN Security Council Decision-making

- Colin Keating, Lessons old and new - non-permanent members on the UNSC
- Jeni Whalen & Jeremy Farrell, Antipodean influence in the UN Security Council: How Australia and New Zealand shaped decision-making on Syria's humanitarian crisis
- Christopher Michaelson, 'The reform process of the UNSC terrorism sanctions regime: the role of domestic and regional judicial context
- Gerard van Bohemen, NZ efforts to change UNSC culture

11 Public International Law

- Ben Keith, National and international courts and tribunals and coherence in international law: fragmentation, managerialism, convergence, constitutionalisation – or irrelevance?
- Caitlin Goss, Treaty withdrawal in international and comparative perspective
- Michael Krakat, New Zealand cash for passport laws and the citizenship of the international community

12 Investment law

- Sarah Fitzgerald and Paul Schofield, Investor-State Dispute Settlement: Regional Reforms With Global Ambitions
- Elizabeth Sheargold, Reconsidering the Treatment of 'Political' Measures in International Investment Arbitration
- Amanda Murphy, Increasing the scope of illegality and 'the right to regulate' in defence of investor-State disputes in the Asia-Pacific Region – Is the pendulum swinging towards host State advantage?
- Relja Radovic, Investment Treaty Arbitration Between States and Arbitrators: Some Reflections on the Principle of Consensualism

- 12.30-13.30 Lunch, ANZSIL AGM

13.30-15.00 Parallel Sessions

13 International Criminal Law

- Tim McCormack, Recent Developments in the International Criminal Court
- Shannon Torrens, African Sovereignty, Local Initiatives and International Crime: Current Challenges and Future Responses
- Emma Palmer, “Execute me by Firing Squad” or “I hope that we can be together in a room”? Intersections with international criminal law in the Philippines
- Danielle Ireland-Piper, Intersections between local and international in the regulation of transnational crime.

14 Human Rights

- Annika Rudman, The persistent objector: An analysis of the African challenge to a universal approach to SOGIE rights under customary international law
- Genevieve Taylor, A "human rights" exception to immunities
- Lee Walker, Local and Global Approaches to the Immunity of Foreign Officials for Jus Cogens Violations

15 China and International Law

- Nishadee Perera, Regionalism as an opportunity: the ‘One Belt, One Road’ anti-corruption case study.
- Sanzhuan Guo, China and Cosmopolitanism A Preliminary Research
- Christina Tao, Lifting the Veil of Providing Foreign Legal Services in China - Becoming more open to international influences after WTO accession and FTAs establishment

15.00-15.30 Afternoon tea

15.30-17.00 Parallel Sessions

16 Security and Armed Conflict

- Livoja Rain, Make War, Not Law
- James Stewart, Reincarnating Article 2(4)
- Sina Etezazian, Necessity, Proportionality, and the Use of Defensive Force against Un-attributable Attacks by Non-State Actors

17 International Environmental Law and Climate Change

- Ellycis Harrould-Kolieb, Responding to Ocean Acidification under International Regimes: A patchwork approach
- Joanna Mossop, Climate change and international fisheries: A legal or management problem?

Australian and New Zealand
Society of International Law

- An Hertogen, Due Diligence: An Effective Response to Transboundary Harm?

18 Cyber law

- Alberto Costi, Emerging Trends and Challenges in Cyber Law and Policy and Their Impact on International Law
- Neha Mishra, From Cyber Sovereignty to Internet Openness: How International Trade Law Regulates Data Flows
- Ankur Gupta, Need for an International legal approach to counter fragmented domestic laws
- Monique Cormier, Can international law adequately respond to ransomware attacks?

17.30-18.30 Sir Kenneth Keith Lecture delivered by Honourable Robert French AC

19.30-22.00 Conference Dinner, The Museum of New Zealand Te Papa Tongarewa

Australian and New Zealand
Society of International Law

Saturday, 7 July

9.15-10.45 Parallel Sessions

19 International Humanitarian Law

- Major General Paul Brereton
- Kevin Riordan
- Robert Mathews
- Vincent Bernard

20 Implementing the Paris Agreement on Climate Change

- Jacqueline Peel
- Timothy Stephens
- Sophie Kalderimis
- Trevor Daya-Winterbottom

10.45-11.15 Morning tea

11.15-12.45 Year in Review Panel. Speakers from:

- Attorney-General's Department (Australia)
- Crown Law Office (New Zealand)
- Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (Australia)
- Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade (New Zealand)

12.45-13.00 Closing Remarks

*** End of Conference *****