Call for Perspectives – deadline 11th September

ANZSIL Perspective 17th Edition

The editorial team of Perspective now invite International Scholars and Practitioners to contribute short commentaries (800 – 1000 words) on areas of interest in international law for publication as a Perspective to our membership and on the new ANZSIL website Perspective webpage

In our August edition we heard from international scholars and practitioners on the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, the relationship between Australia and China in respect of the South China Sea and the Hong Kong extradition treaty and the concept of ‘allegiance’.

We recognise the continuing importance of maintaining conversations and discussions on other topics with an international perspective.

We now invite papers for the 17th Edition. These can be broad or specific papers. We want to engage with all our interest groups and membership and to support the active collaboration and dialogue between members and others in the international law community on topical issues of interest in international law.

We welcome submissions from early career researchers and PhD students.

New Guidelines and submission details are on the ANZSIL Perspective web page here
