ANZSIL POSTGRADUATE RESEARCH STUDENTS WORKSHOP

Wednesday 29 June 2022

CALL FOR PAPERS: Deadline: Monday 21 February 2022

The Australian and New Zealand Society of International Law (ANZSIL) Postgraduate Research Students Workshop will be held on Wednesday 29 June 2022 at the ANU College of Law in Canberra, Australia and online (virtual).

The Workshop aims to provide postgraduate degree research students with an opportunity to present their research to their peers, to develop their own feedback and engagement skills, to discuss their experiences of postgraduate research and to make academic and professional connections. Participants will give presentations on an aspect of their research for approximately 10 minutes, followed by a roundtable discussion of each paper. To facilitate this discussion, participants will be required to submit short papers (no more than 1,500 words) for distribution in advance of the Workshop. Participants will also be expected to engage as discussants of other papers. There is no registration fee.

The Workshop will be followed by the 29th ANZSIL Annual Conference, which will take place virtually and in person from the 30th of June to the 2nd of July 2022. Workshop participants are encouraged to attend and there will be no registration fee for workshop participants.

Postgraduate research students wishing to present their work on an international law topic are encouraged to submit their proposals for presentation at the Workshop. Applicants must be enrolled in a higher degree research program (PhD, SJD, or Research Masters) at an Australian or New Zealand university.

Applicants should submit a one-page abstract and one-page curriculum vitae (both as word documents) by email to anzsil@law.anu.edu.au by no later than 21 February 2022. Please include the heading on your email message 'PG Workshop Application: [Your Name]'. Your curriculum vitae should indicate clearly how many full years you have completed in your research degree, and whether you have completed any formal requirements for candidacy in your degree. Please also indicate whether you plan to attend in person or online, and whether you have presented at an ANZSIL Postgraduate workshop before.

The organisers will let applicants know of the outcome of their application by the middle of March 2022. In the event that there are more applicants than there are places in the Workshop, priority will be given to participants who have not previously presented at an ANZSIL Postgraduate Workshop, and who have completed formal confirmation requirements for their research degree.

Short papers (no more than 1500 words) will be due on 15 June 2022.

The 2022 Workshop will be convened by Dr An Hertogen (Auckland Law School) and Dr Ntina Tzouvala (ANU College of Law).
