ANZSIL Perspective 27th Edition

The editorial team of ANZSIL Perspective are delighted to announce the forthcoming 28th Edition of ANZSIL Perspective. We invite International Scholars and Practitioners to contribute short commentaries (+/- 1000 words) on areas of interest in international law for publication as a Perspective to our membership and online at the ANZSIL Perspective Webpage.

In our March 2022 edition we heard from Kiran Menon and Dr Melinda Rankin on universal jurisdiction, and an instructive book review by Monique Cormier on Kai Ambos (Ed), Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court Article -by-Article Commentary (4th ed, Beck/Hart, 2022). You can read all three on our recently updated web page here

We recognise the continuing importance of maintaining conversations and discussions on other topics with an international perspective, through diverse expert voices including practitioners, academics, practicing academics.

We now invite articles and book reviews for the 28th Edition by 18 April 2022. These can be broad or specific papers. We want to engage with all our interest groups and membership as well as international scholars and practitioners, and to support the active collaboration and dialogue between members and others in the international law community on topical issues of interest in international law.

We welcome submissions from early career researchers and PhD students.
