Call for Perspectives – deadline 13 AUGUST 2021

ANZSIL Perspective 24th Edition

The editorial team of ANZSIL Perspective now invite International Scholars and Practitioners to contribute short commentaries (+/- 1000 words) on areas of interest in international law for publication as a Perspective to our membership and on the new ANZSIL Perspective Webpage

In our July 2021 edition we heard from Tarisa Yasin on The Importance of Flexibility in Regulating Lethal Autonomous Weapon Systems

We recognise the continuing importance of maintaining conversations and discussions on other topics with an international perspective, through diverse expert voices and particularly encourage contributions arising from the recent ANZSIL conference.

We now invite articles and book reviews for the 24th Edition by 13 August 2021. These can be broad or specific papers. We want to engage with all our interest groups and membership as well as international scholars and practitioners, and to support the active collaboration and dialogue between members and others in the international law community on topical issues of interest in international law.

We welcome submissions from early career researchers and PhD students.

Guidelines and submission details are on the ANZSIL Perspective web page here
