Call for Perspectives – deadline 8 OCTOBER 2021

ANZSIL Perspective 25th Edition

The editorial team of ANZSIL Perspective are delighted to announce the forthcoming 25th Edition of ANZSIL Perspective. We invite International Scholars and Practitioners to contribute short commentaries (+/- 1000 words) on areas of interest in international law for publication as a Perspective to our membership and online at the ANZSIL Perspective Webpage

In our September 2021 edition we heard from Daye Gang on effecting structural change in North Korea and Hannah Harris on global deforestation as an international concern.

We recognise the continuing importance of maintaining conversations and discussions on other topics with an international perspective, through diverse expert voices including practitioners, academics, practicing academics.

We now invite articles and book reviews for the 25th Edition by 8 October 2021. These can be broad or specific papers. We want to engage with all our interest groups and membership as well as international scholars and practitioners, and to support the active collaboration and dialogue between members and others in the international law community on topical issues of interest in international law.

We welcome submissions from early career researchers and PhD students.

Guidelines and submission details are on the ANZSIL Perspective web page here
