PERSPECTIVE

April 2021

Call for Perspectives – deadline 9 MAY 2021

ANZSIL Perspective 22nd Edition

The editorial team of ANZSIL Perspective now invite International Scholars and Practitioners to contribute short commentaries (+/- 1000 words) on areas of interest in international law for publication as a Perspective to our membership and on the new ANZSIL Perspective Webpage

In our April 2021 edition we heard from Kristie Bluett on Australia's obligation to prohibit child detention in the context of international migration and Tetyana (Tanya) Krupiy on protecting equality in the context of the proliferation of artificial intelligence technology.

We recognise the continuing importance of maintaining conversations and discussions on other topics with an international perspective, through diverse expert voices.

We now invite articles and book reviews for the 22nd Edition by 9 May 2021. These can be broad or specific papers. We want to engage with all our interest groups and membership as well as international scholars and practitioners, and to support the active collaboration and dialogue between members and others in the international law community on topical issues of interest in international law.

We welcome submissions from early career researchers and PhD students.

Guidelines and submission details are on the ANZSIL Perspective web page here
